

Stephanie Lauren Ellis

March 9, 2019

Stephanie Lauren Ellis, age, 45 of Dacula, GA passed away Saturday, March 9, 2019.

She was preceded in death by her father, Eddie Buckles and grandparents, Mildred and Quitman Peters. She is survived by her husband, Gregg Ellis, Dacula, GA; son, Shawn Buckles, Dacula, GA; step-son, Devin Ellis, Lilburn, GA; step-daughter, Erica Ellis, Lilburn, GA; daughters, Madeline Ellis, Statham, GA, Mildred Ellis, Dacula, GA; grandson, Drake Castille, Stone Mountain, GA; mother, Patricia Stone, Beaufort, SC; step-father, Brian Stone, Beaufort, SC sister, Shannon Philippus, Tampa, FL; grandmother, Patsy Buckles, Lake City, FL; grandfather, Billy Buckles, Lake City, FL; numerous aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. Mrs. Ellis was born November 14, 1973 in Miami, FL.

Stephanie was a loving and compassionate person who enjoyed time with her family. She had the most beautiful smile that could light up your soul. She loved camping, the beach, sitting outside, and going to the mountains. She loved cooking. She was always making special dishes. Her stubborn, yet loving and caring personality meant that she fought for her kids and hard for her life over the past several years.

Most of all she loved and adored her children and her husband, they were her world. If you were lucky enough to be present when she gazed into her children's faces, the pure joy radiating from her would blind you. Stephanie wanted nothing more for them than to have a wonderful life.

She moved to Lake City, Florida as a child and graduated from Columbia High School in 1991. She would have wanted you to spend time with your children, take a walk on the beach with your loved ones, and enjoy an out of the way cafe. She will be deeply missed by all who knew and loved her. A Celebration of Life service will be held on Saturday, March 30, 2019 at 2:00 pm in the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home, Buford, GA with the Rev. Larry Wynn officiating.

“ May family and friends find comfort in God's promise of a resurrection of all those lost in death that are in his limitless memory.
His promise is a guarantee because it is impossible for God to lie. God will wipe every tear from eyes and death, mourning, pain and sorrow will be things of the past. (Revelation 21:4).

“ I would like to extend my sincerest sympathy to the Ellis family. Our loving God keeps us all in his memory and promises to reunite us with our loved ones. But until then we still have to cope with our grief. Hopefully this verse from the Bible brings you a measure of comfort...Rev. 21:4, 5 (jw.org) ~ The Johnson Family

“ I am so sorry for the loss of your dear loved one, Stephanie. As you go through this sorrowful time, you can be assured that God does care about you. Nothing can bring you more peace of mind than the inspired words of... "the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our tribulations." (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) Please take care.

“ "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1 Corinthians 15:26) I am so sorry for your loss. God promises that he will soon wipe away and reverse the effects of this enemy that causes so much pain. Your precious Stephanie will be brought back to you and you will never have to experience the pain of saying a goodbye ever again! (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:4,5) Jw.org

“ Sending my deepest condolences and prayers to your family, I didn't have the chance to reconnect with Stephanie since high school, but, she was one of the first friends I made when I moved to Columbia County. She quickly became my best friend from 7th thru all of high school. She was one of the most amazing people I've ever had the honor of meeting and knowing. I'll be sending prayers up for all of her family, Ms. Patricia and Shannon. Stay Strong in your faith.
