

Stephen M. Arshinkoff

October 20, 2016

Stephen M. Arshinkoff, born March 11, 1948 to Christ and Georgia Florence, provided joy, laughter and love to his family and friends for 68 years. A defensive end standout for Garfield High and later for The University of Akron, Steve could often be found roaming the Lone Star House in his bear coat or raising a few drinks on Exchange St.

Graduating from college in a mere 6 years, Steve would move on to occasionally work at Firestone, sell real estate for Self Realty, set up drinks at Cirello's, and manage stores for RCA and Sterling Jewelers. His larger-than-life personality made him the quintessential salesman as he always had a joke or line to share with his customers. As a master chef, he created "mystery" cereal and the infamous Cheetos omelet. As a car enthusiast, he enjoyed driving his Corvettes and Caddies to Luigi's, Swenson's and The Corral for a light meal. Even more, Steve was a devout Cleveland sports fan, which finally paid off in 2016 when he witnessed the Cavs make history and the Indians win the ALCS. Despite the frustration, he religiously watched the Browns every Sunday as well.

Devoted husband to Linda, loving father to Amanda and Matthew, adoring grandfather to Luca and Sophia Rose, and father-in-law to Andrew Hoggarth, Steve Arshinkoff loved life and we all loved him.

In addition to immediate family, Steve is survived by brothers Nick (Donna), Chris (Joan), Alex (Karen), brother and sister-in-law Gary and Joy Dain, numerous nieces and nephews, and mother-in-law/best friend Rose Dain.

In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to the Cleveland Browns QB Fund.
Boy, do they need it...

“ I know that you don't know me but I lost my Mother on this same day. All that I can say at this time is that may God mend your broken heart. I never knew that losing a loved one could or even would hurt so bad. I could only imagine what your going through. To make matters worse my mother passed away 2 days before my birthday. All that I can say is stay strong. God will heal your broken heart.

“ So sad to hear of Steve's passing. We all loved him at Garfield High School. In fact, we just celebrated our 50th high school reunion a few weekends ago and missed seeing Steve. He was also my neighbor when we lived in Medina, OH for a while. I know Steve will be missed by his loving family and friends. His great personality endeared him to all. I still remember what a great football player he was! God bless Steve and bring comfort to his family and friends
