“ Steve was a pleasure to work with and he touched many people's lives. One day while working, a local Dr at the hospital stopped and asked how Steve was. He spoke about how Steve was a good friend for 5 minutes. What a response. It shows how he connected with others at a genuine level. We will all miss him. May God bless his soul.

“ Growing up going to church at Fairview Presbyterian Steve was always a great man to be around with a smile and sincerely friendly pleasant way about him that stays with you even years after not seeing him. I'd say the same about all of the Russell family and my heart, thoughts, and prayers go out to them. Steve will be greatly missed.

“ Steve was a fantastic person. He always was interested in you and what you were doing. I will never forget the Christmas ?? lunch where he gifted everyone a Lottery card saying "Someone should win and I want to be sure I know the winner." Will definitely miss his smile and friendly hello. Thanks to his family for sharing him with us for so many years.
