“ Steven and I met in our late teen years. He was loyal, caring and very creative. I've never met another person like him and most likely never will. He's been there for me on many occasions when I needed him during our friendship. We'll never forget you.

“ He is my best friend, I've met him three years ago. Knowing him, he's goofy, funny, intelligent, and kind. I just cannot believe that's he's really gone... He helped me through so much as well as I've helped him.

There's times when I just needed a friend to be there and he doesn't hesitate to invite me over. Just wished I was there to help him when needed the most.. I'll miss him a lot, hell, I already do. All love Steven Thomaston, you may rest in peace for eternity. You'll live in all of our hearts and memories.
