“ Mark, Rex, I was so sad to find you Mother has left for her Heavenly home. Your Mother and I were good friends while working in office of Ga. Boot in Flowery Branch and then again in Avery Dennison, Flowery Branch for 20 yrs.

After we retired. we remain friends, going out to breakfast and lunch. I know Sue's in Heaven with Jesus and her Creator, singing with all her family and heavenly friends. Love and praying for Mark and Rex...Sue loved you so!

“ I first met Sue when we were in Flowery Branch High School. I was new, and started up in her health class. She was a good friend and in all the years that followed, as we attended the same church, she was dear to my heart. I was sorry to hear of her passing, and know it is hard on those left behind but I believe she is with our heavenly Father now, and rests in peace with other loved ones there.
