“ I saw you just last week at the school. You gave me that smile and hug and kiss as you would every time you saw me no matter if it had been days, months or years since you had seen me last. The unexpected is so hard to process. I will never forget how you brushed my hair back from my face with your fingers like I was a little girl a week ago. You had a heart full of LOVE for everyone you came in contact with. Go rest high Sue Ellen! This world will never be the same as you are proof that love never fails! Love you always sweet lady.

“ First of all she was all about her family, worked hard and provided as best as she could, took care of everyone without thought of herself. Times were hard back then but she always came through and loved us every day, made my day home from work with a smile. I see her now in my mind and our memories together, unforgotten. Steve.
