“ I just found out yesterday of Susan's passing she was an amazing lady she was so sweet and kind. I met her when we both worked at McDonald's in San Jose, CA. I unfortunately lost touch with her and her parents when they moved to Georgia. I am also sad about her parents passing too. I have many great memories of Susan and she will missed. My heart goes out to her son Jack. The picture is from when she came to visit me holding my baby daughter Amanda in 1999. ❤️

“ I met Susan's son at the fair the other night and what a nice young man he is. Never knowing this young man, he looked at me and saw that my name was Susan and that he loved that name. He had tears in his eyes and told me about her. I am sending my thoughts and prayers to this young man and his family for strength and guidance through this difficult time.

“ "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing." (1 Corinthians 15:26) God promises that he will soon wipe away and reverse the effects of this enemy that causes so much pain. Your precious one will be brought back to you and you will never have to experience the pain of losing her ever again. This is a promise from God! “ To the loved ones of Susan Asher,

Although we did not have the privilege of knowing Mrs. Asher, we have personally experienced the pain of losing someone we loved dearly. We extend our heartfelt condolences to each of you. Please be assured of God's enduring love for you, his concern with your well-being, and his willingness to help you endure this difficult time. (1 Peter 5:7) We pray that God's promise at Revelation 21:4 will provide you comfort in the days to come.
