

Susan Boone McFall

March 24, 2020

Susan Boone McFall, was born July 9, 1947 in Pensacola, Florida. She was promoted to the Lord's loving embrace on March 24, 2020.

She is survived by her Loving Husband, Paul McFall, her daughter Seana, and her husband Cliff Simpson, her son Sean and his wife Karey. Most importantly she leaves her everlasting Love for her five wonderful grandchildren, Jackson, Sara Jewel, and Anna Catherine Simpson; and Austin and Ella Kate McFall for whom she was Nanny. Nanny loved all of her grandchildren with every drop of her wonderful heart and that love, and her never ending attention to them will be sorely missed. She taught her children, and their spouses, how to be great parents, how to put their children, just as she had, always first and to make sure that they always knew they were loved. She loved her husband with all her heart and was his best friend, closest confidant, and the love of his life. Most importantly, she loved Jesus and because of this we know we will be together again one day. Susan Boone McFall's Love for her family and her Savior was known to everyone that knew her and that is exactly the legacy she would want to leave behind.

Tribute Wall

“ Susan Boone McFall

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM