

Susan Edwards Moore

April 15, 1935 - November 17, 2024

Susan Edwards (Sue) Moore, 89, went to be with her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, on Sunday November 17, 2024. She was preceded in death by her husband Jack. Sue is survived by her son, Greg (Ashraf) Moore of Marietta, GA, daughter Dana (Jim) Tatum of Ball Ground, GA, grandchildren Collin Ritchie, Erin Ritchie, Michael Moore, great-granddaughter, Ivy George, and Sue's sister, Pam Carroll, of Wilmington, NC.

Sue grew up in Wilmington, NC, and graduated from New Hanover High School in 1953. From there she attended Lees-McRae College in Banner Elk, NC and, years later, received her Masters in Education from Georgia State University. In college, she met Jack, got married, and then moved to Johnson City, TN. Sue was principal of a one-room schoolhouse in Grundy, VA for a while. Jack and Sue moved to Doraville, GA and became teachers in the DeKalb County school system. Sue taught high school business classes at Shamrock High, Sequoyah High and Cross Keys High School over three decades. For many years, they lived in Lilburn, GA while raising a family and teaching students. Upon retirement, Sue and Jack moved full time to their beloved home on Lake Hartwell in Toccoa, GA. In later years they settled in Hoschton, GA.

Sue was a loving, giving person. She was always volunteering to help where needed including her local church, Eagle Ranch Children's Home and as President of the state hospital auxiliary council. She was the consummate hostess. A warm smile, loving words, and the unconditional love of Jesus were always present.

A graveside service will be held at Stephens County Memorial Gardens on Friday November 22, 2024 at 1:00 pm., with Rev. Brett Sanders officiating. In lieu of flowers, please consider gifts to First Baptist Church, Toccoa, GA.

Previous Events

Graveside Service

NOV 22. 1:00 PM (ET)

Stephens Memorial Gardens Cemeery
3650 Georgia Highway 17
Toccoa, GA 30577