

Suzanne Langley Marshall

November 24, 2013

Suzanne Langley Marshall, 73, died November 24, 2013 after a short but fierce battle with ALS. She is preceded in death by her parents, Everett and Maurie Langley and her daughters, Kerri Lisa Marshall and Laurie Marshall Angell. Suzanne is survived by her sons, Jeff Marshall (Marcene) and Scott Marshall (Christy), her sister Jerry Minor and nephews Dutch Minor (Dee) and Kevin Minor. She held a special place in her heart for her grandchildren, Jenny Marshall Spivey (Candler), Alex Angell and Brendan Marshall. She was just getting to know and love two little great-grandchildren, Oliver and Max Spivey.

Suzanne was a native of Atlanta and proud of it. She raised her children on Delta, Coca-Cola, the Braves and the Falcons and All Things, Atlanta. Her home was a focal point of the neighborhood and filled with children and food and laughter. She was a Mother to Many and a Friend to Any. People were drawn to Suzanne - and she never let them down. She taught her children to love the arts and to love each other; to never start a fight but to surely finish one. She lead by example, teaching her children to be strong and self-reliant but most of all to be Sweet Girls and Good Boys. And she missed Her Girls - every day of her life. And now, She is with Them.

A Memorial Service for Suzanne Langley Marshall will be held Wednesday, November 27th at 2:00 in the Chapel of John's Creek Baptist Church.

Visitation and viewing will be held on Tuesday, November 26th from 6-8:00 pm at Flanigan Funeral Home, in Buford. The family would like to thank ALL Those who made this journey with Suzanne. Thanks go out to the Homestead Hospice organization and to the Bowen Sunday School Class at JCBC. And a very special thanks, to Kristi Green, Our Own little Angel.

In lieu of flowers, donations to help find a cure for Lou Gehrig's Disease, may be made to the ALS Association at ALSA.org; or to the charity of your choice.

“ Jeff, Scott and family....I am so sorry for the loss of your precious mother and grandmother. You all have been so blessed. To me she was a sweet friend. I was blessed and inspired by her friendship. I only wish I had more time with her for more girlfriend adventures...sharing moments, travel, plays, oysters and conversation. But her pain is no more and she is free....praise God! Until we meet again, memories will sustain our friendship. Now she is dancing with her daughters along with all those who preceded her.....

“ When I think of you Suzanne, I am instantly taken back to the very first time I met you. You greeted me with the most beautiful smile and most welcoming hug, at that moment I felt connected to you in the most special way.. I will treasure the friendship we had FOREVER. You are a special LADY in my heart and you will live there forever... Thank you for being you and loving me the way only YOU could... I love you and miss you.~ Carolyn
P.S.... please tell my Daddy I miss him if you meet him in heaven.

“ Jeff I feel very privileged to have gotten to meet and spend time with your mother. I know how much she loved the kids and grandchildren. I am thankful that Jenny and Oliver face timed with her the day before she passed. Death is hard especially when it's your mother. I lost mine, as you well know, during the Christmas holidays. My heart still weeps for her but in my mind I know she was ready to take the eternal journey and mother is there to greet her at the gates. God was good to take her and give her peace. She only knew about this disease for 11 months and she suffered most of that time. She was so beautiful on the inside and out. My memories are few but I dearly enjoyed the talks we had before Oliver was born. She left y'all a legacy that will be carried on in you, your brother, her grands and her greatgrands. Hopefully tonight and tomorrow people will share with you and your family all the blessings she was to many many people and the lives she changed just being herself. We love you and am so happy to have y'all in our family. There will be a special star in the heavens that will shine ever so brightl in her memory. Find comfort that she suffers no more and feels no pain. It's normal to cry and be sad because we can no longer hold their hands or look into their eyes. I miss mom as much today as I did the day she passed but I take comfort in that she and Suzanne are at peace. The peace that passes all understanding. We love you, Marcene, Brennon and Jenny and those precious grand babies... If you need anything give us a call. With sympathy and prayers you will carry the mories that sometimes only you and she carry. Love Russ and Loretta

“ I have known Suzanne for over 25 years. She was a big sister to me. A true friend and I loved her dearly. God has a new angel and your daughters are now happy to have their mom back in the arms. Watch over me Suzanne, and until we meet again. I love you!

“ 1. Suzanne has been a part of my life since I came to work for Marion 23 years ago. She and I were both dog lovers, always exchanging pictures. The descriptors listed in Suzanne's obituary are so appropriate; mother to many, friend, strong, self-reliant and fighter. She was truly an example of the adage, "It is not what happens to you, but how you respond to what happens to you. Count your blessings while others are adding up their troubles". Suzanne's beautiful smile and caring, sparkly eyes displayed how much she cared. We love and will miss Suzanne but Heaven is a much better place with her there today.

“ Suzanne was a longtime friend and associate of mine for many years in the Atlanta office with Marion Lab. She was a real professional and a joy to be around. We are so sad to hear about her passing... I know her loss will be felt by many.

“ Not sure if anyone will remember me but Lee was married to my mom from 76-79. I have thought about all the "kids" thru the years & didnt know until recently about the girls passings. I looked & found Suzanne on FB & had planned to get in touch with her. My Mom died suddenly in a car accident in 79 & tho we'd never met, Suzanne had called a few times & talked to me during that summer. I wanted to thank her for her kind words & love for someone she had not personally met, but made me feel as tho we were old friends. That meant a LOT to me as a 14 year old girl & stayed with me thru the years. As I read your tribute to Suzanne here, I see what a special person she was to all who knew her & Im so sorry i didnt reach her in time; for her kind words helped me thru the most difficult time in my life. Jeff & Scott, I am so sorry that your family has suffered such losses, first your sisters & now your Mom. My heart breaks for you. You are all in my thoughts & prayers. I pray they are all rejoicing in Heaven together. My most sincere sympathy for you both & your family.

“ Suzanne Marshall is one of the finest individuals we have ever had the privilege of knowing. She was the second person I ever met with Marion Laboratories. Suzanne was truly loved by all those who had the privilege of working with and knowing her. And it was a blessing to work with her son Jeff. God Bless Suzanne and all her family.

“ Our love and sympathy goes to Suzanne's Family. She will always be remembered for her love, kindness, and helping save our granddaughter's life by donating her daughter's kidney to Madison. We last saw her earlier this year at Myrtle Beach, SC. Our visit was filled with love and laughter from each other. We will always remember her as an Angel. Love, Betty and Family

“ Jeff and Scott words could never describe my love & Friendship for Suzanne. We had so many good times in High School and all through the years afterwards. She was a special person. Jeff and Scott don't you ever have regrets. Nobody could have more devoted to their Mother than you all. Suzanne loved you all so very much. Love you Suzanne and will always think of you.

“ I met Suzanne through work but our friendship grew to be much more. She was like a second mom to me (like she was to many others). And she made sure I knew she felt the same. She was always there for me and my family. And now there's another angel looking down over us. She was just a great woman that I am honored to have had in my life. Our thoughts and prayers are with the whole family.

“ I worked for Marion Labs and the subsequent companies for 22 years. Suzanne was a staple of our success. She mothered many of us like she did her family and friends. She was a great friend and kept me and many of us out of more trouble than we realized. My mom was a victim of ALS and my heart goes out to the family and friends who comforted her through her battle. Rejoice in knowing that her huge wonderful heart is with Christ. The peace and joy of everlasting life replaces the suffering and the discomfort created by her disease. It was great to share time with Suzanne.
