“ I am so very sad that my friend Tammy is gone. But I can still hear her laughing at some dumb stunt, or worrying out loud about one of the kids. She loved all of you so much, and each one differently, from her mother to the youngest child. Her family was her main concern. I think one of the best times we ever had was the day her mother came to the house and got her hair done. Peanut was still with us then, and was nervous about the house looking its' best. Looking back, I see our little dysfunctional extended family and I am thankful to have had each and every one of you in my life. Tammy, you will be missed
