“ So sorry for the premature loss of Tammy. She was a wonderfully unique person. I regret losing touch with her just a few years ago after reconnecting on the Facebook chat thing. She told me about her hardships with her worsening health. I remember Tammy best from our younger days in the 70s & 80s. Her smile and laughter, along with her booming voice, would light up a room, and she always made our dad laugh. As a fellow Baptist, I am happy to know that her pain is gone and she is happy and more alive than ever as she dwells in the house of the Lord and His angels!
