SARA CLEMONS - September 25, 2018 at 12:00 AM

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Death indeed is an "enemy " (1 Corinthians 15:26) that God promises to do away with soon. He also promises a time when he will bring back to life our loved ones who have died by means of his son Jesus Christ. (John 5:25) We will be able to once again enjoy life with them. We will live in a world that God intended for mankind, paradise right here on this earth. Psalms 37:9-11,29

“ My sincerest condolences to your family. Losing a loved one is extremely difficult. We long for for the time when we no longer have to experience the pain of loss. (Revelation 21:3,4) Until then, May the "God of all comfort" be with you during this difficult time and May you find peace in His promises and in your loving memories. (1 Corinthians 1:3,4)

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May God comfort your mourning hearts. I pray that you find comfort in Revelation 21:3-5. This scripture paints a picture of a world that is very different from what we see today. A world with no more sickness, pain or death...and it is not a dream, it is a promise from God. He promises to reverse the effects of death and resurrect your precious one. You will never have to say a painful goodbye ever again!
