

Teresa Morgan Bearse

May 2, 1945 - April 23, 2024

Teresa Morgan Bearse died peacefully surrounded by her family on April 23, 2024. In her final days, she let it be known that she was excited to finally meet her Savior, Jesus Christ. Teresa, 78, was born on May 2, 1945, to Lamar (“Hank”) Morgan and Veda Morgan (Saunders). She is preceded in death by her husband, Asa Taylor Bearse, III. She is survived by her brother Glenn Morgan and her sister Marlinda McCollough. She was a loving mother to her daughter Lore Moya (Richard Moya) and her son Asa Taylor Bearse IV (Sarah Bearse). Teresa loved her grandchildren- Calen Beasley, Morgan Moya, Asa Taylor Bearse V, Justin Moya, Lindsey Gaeta, and Kyle Moya. She considered herself abundantly blessed to have great grandchildren, Harlynn Beasley, Hensley Beasley, TJ Beasley, Ellie Moya, Camilla Gaeta, and Luna Gaeta. Teresa served as an RN for 28 years, many of which were spent working as an OBGYN nurse. Her nurturing temperament and heart to serve were evident and admired by all who had the pleasure of knowing her. She was an avid reader of James Patterson books, spending time with her family and friends and tuning in to Jeopardy as a “living-room” contestant. Teresa was the epitome of southern hospitality and grace. Per her wishes, in lieu of a service, the family will hold a private celebration of life. Donations in her honor can be made to <https://www.nationalbreastcancer.org> or Vietnam Veterans of America

“ I started this before. Ronnie and I are so sorry for your family's loss especially for you and Taylor. Your mon and Dad were such a big part for Doraville and meant so much to many. I wish she could have been at ND the other week end. She was a strong person, I know she is celebrating being with your Dad. We will be praying for peace for you and the family.

“ My sincere and heartfelt sympathy and condolences to Theresa's children, brother and extended family. My family and I were blessed to be neighbors with Theresa and Asa for almost 20 years. She loved life, her family and her faith. She was always gracious, charming and funny. I have wonderful memories of her as a friend, a leader in the Garden Club and a great partner in Bridge. May she rest in peace in the arms of our Lord.
