“ I was beyond sad to hear about Teresa but know in my heart that she's in a better place and where she's meant to be. What a blessing to have known this incredible woman who I called my walk a by neighbor. I met Teresa while going on daily walks with Murphy, my 16 year old dog whom I lost recently. I'm from Ohio and had lived in this neighborhood for awhile but never felt like I really fit in until one day I heard this voice "Hey, how are you today?" I introduced myself & Murphy and in no time it was just like old friends. I'd stop each night she was out on our walk and we'd talk about everything from our Mom's, the dogs, her grandbaby and health issues. When I'd start to leave, usually being pulled by Murphy, she'd say tell your Momma "Hey & Love you" and I would say "Always & Love you back".

I've thought how hard going by her house will be when I start walking my 3 remaining dogs again and decided I'll just look up in the sky for the brightest star & say "Hey Angel, how's the dancing in Heaven?"

Miss you my friend,

Love always,

“ . She was one sweet lady and had a great sense of humor. Loved to camp and fish. She Loved her church family. She was always willing to help with any activity that was going on at church. She and Harvey are good Country folks just like the rest of us. Always wanting to show me pictures of that grand daughter whom she could talk non stop about. She loved everybody. She will be missed.
