“Daddy, Words can not express how I am feeling right now. The loss of you has ripped me apart. I am missing a huge piece of my heart. The love you have for me will always be with me. No matter what you are always in my heart. I know i've let you down many times but you are the only person that loved me through the good and bad. you and kathy have taught me right from wrong throught out my life and I promise I will carry that with me. You were the best husband, father, and grandfather. My son loved you more than life itself. That lil boy is going to miss you like crazy. Thats when I step up and teach him. Til the day I day daddy I promise..im going to teach him the best of my ability. You were an amzing father to me dad and I thank you more than anything for beiung my dad. I am the luckiest daughter in the world to call you my father. And dont worry about kathy. Im going to help her through this time without you,shes a strong woman. She took care of you and did it with pride. She loves you so much daddy. We all do.Look down on us and guide us through our lives. You go dance with the angels and be with your daddy. When I look in the sky im going to smile and think of you. I love you Daddy. Im going to miss you.we will all be together again one day, And what a beautiful day that will be. 09/30/11 R.I.P DADDY!!
