I knew this guy in the 80s , I didn't go to lakeside.. I was from a different high school (shamrock) but we still always ran into each other through out the years even after high school.. definitely a cool dude.condolences to his family.. I remember his brother Adam .. I believe his name was. My condolences to him as well

“ Terry, anyone that knew you knew you had a very pure, kind, and selfless soul. You always had a way of making everyone smile. It has been close to a month since you left us all here to try to understand why you were taken so early out of our lives, but I must believe that there was a reason behind it. Your presence will always be with us all until the day comes that we will reach for you with a smile on our face as big as yours. Sleep in peace my brother. I will always love and miss you but feel at ease knowing that you are an angel on my shoulder.

“ Terry, you may have been the only person I know who truly didn't have a mean bone in your body. You didn't deserve the struggles you faced over the last few years, but you did it with a smile. As always. That's how I will remember you. Happy and loving life. You will be sorely missed.

“ Terry, you were one of the most genuinely happy people I'd ever met. I will always remember you in your band and superhero t-shirts, and for your excellent taste in music. Even though you weren't feeling great the last time I saw you, you still managed to make everyone in the room laugh. While we didn't see each other often enough, I value the lessons you taught me - to not take life too seriously and always be yourself.

Mama C, you are the strongest person I know. Sending you, Tina and the rest of the family prayers of strength. Love you all.

“ The world lost a truly kind soul with Terry's passing. Be comforted that our family member and friend lived a decent and moral life, and had a positive influence on all that he engaged with. RIP Terry and see you later. Rock on!

“ Terry, I love you so much. You were a wonderful son. You fought a battle that couldn't be won. You always had a smile, sometimes devilish. You were a gentle soul. a kind man and you will be missed until the day I die. Thankfully all the pain is gone and you are now flying with the angels. I know God has welcomed you with open arms. I am so proud of being your mom. The grief will be raw for a long time, but I will remember all the good times and all the fun times that we had together. I love you son.

“ So sorry for your loss. May the God of all comfort give you his peace to endure this difficult time. God promises to restore life to those lost in death by means of a resurrection. In fact, he yearns to do so. (Job 14: 14 & 15).

“ Terry is already missed more than anyone can imagine, I am happy that his pain and suffering is over, he can never be replaced, he truly was one of a kind and continuing on without him is breaking my heart. Celeste and I have been caring for Terry for the past 11 months, so I am very thankful to have her to cry with, get angry and to heal. Terry, I will forever be yours, love you with all my heart, Love Tina??
