“ Thank you for being such an amazing and supportive male figure in my life during my difficult teenage years (when I needed you the most). You will be missed, but I know we will see you again soon! I know you will be watching over me and giving me the tough love that has made me who I am today.

“ Terry was the most kindest and sweetest person I know . Terry is the one who always looked out for you. Terry would always make sure I made it home safely and I knew Terry was not going to take no for an answer and he wasn't going to let me ride home alone Terry would jump on his motorcycle and follow me until I turned on my street he would say I have to know you made it home safe he will be truly missed

“ I know this:

Heavenly Blotter

Yesterday a newly returned soul spent the day in a 1971, powder blue, Ford Torino GT, ripping up and down the golden avenue doing donuts and laying drags. All there present were amazed and enjoyed the show. Once the smoke had cleared and only the rumble of the glass packs filled the air, our King's voice boomed out loudly saying: "Well done my child, well done!"

In today's news: A band of Angels larger than a Trump rally are gathered to witness a glorious game of "King-of-the-Hill" featuring the Maddox brothers. Tim, Tommy, and Terry are all thrilled to be together again and are celebrating their brotherly love and exciting the crowds. The battle is now in round 3 with Terry taking the early lead for the title!

*Love you all,

“ Terry was a great funny guy. He loved to have fun. Always cutting up and laughing. He and my brother Jeff Pruett were definitely a mess when they were together.

Sending prayers for family and friends during this difficult time.

“ Terry was one of a kind. The only thing bigger than his smile was his heart. I worked with Terry doing HVAC. He was more than a boss he was a mentor and friend. I have many memories with him. I'll never forget going to Applebee's on a Thursday afternoon and begin to pitch a drunk. The night would find us at a local bar having a big and rich time. My condolences to his family. I cannot imagine the pain you're feeling in losing him. God bless y'all.
