“Dido had a beautiful spirit and was a loving father not only to Eliane, Moni, and Joe, but to all their friends and loved ones. He loved life and always made us laugh. I still remember the “swearing competition” he had with my son — a memory we still cherish after all these years. His generosity and kindness touched everyone around him. He loved fishing and being out on the boat, and those moments will stay with us forever.

*He will be deeply missed.
We love you, Dido. Rest in peace.*
