“ I am missing the quiet shy guy that would give me a ride to school his senior year- the mustang! He was the best listener- and always patient and kind. I know he was dedicated to his family- and I pray for you.

“ Ain't no way in hell this space has enough words for me to share my memories with my Scuppernong, my buddy Tommy Bruner. Killed my first deer with him, rode 100,000 miles in that blue 66 Mustang, snuck dips of Copenhagen with him, loved him because he was my friend. Heaven gained a great man, Gerry had been looking for him, and I hope she fixed squirrel and a salad with Rio Vista dressing

“ May God be with the Bruner Family and friends during this difficult time. I am really going to miss my favorite friend, fishing buddy, neighbor and cornhole teammate. I feel blessed to have Tommy be part of my life over the last 20 years. He will never be forgotten. Rest in peace brother.
