“ I was saddened by the news of Tim's death. Tim holds a special place in my childhood memories. We played together as children on Poplar Street and started elementary school together. His whole family was always very nice to me, but especially his sweet mother, Vestie. As adults Tim and I would run into each other from time to time and he always wore a smile and had something to say. Tim was one of a kind. Sadly, I learned about Kay's passing last year only yesterday. My heart and prayers go out to Dennis and the rest of the family. I'm so sorry for your losses.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. Our heavenly Father put eternity into our hearts so it pains him when we lose someone precious. The Bible calls death an enemy...an enemy that God promises that he will wipe out. Mr Herrington will wake up and you will be able to hold him once more. You will never have to fear letting his hand go ever again! (Ecclesiastes 3:11;1 Corinthians 15:26; Job 33:25; Revelation 21:4) Jw.org

“ I have been friends with Tim for many years I was about 15 yrs. old when we met. My dad bought the house next to the tire shop. We had a lot of fun at the store and shop , just riding around Buford mall. I have always love his family and consider them to be lifelong friends. I have not seen Tim in the past couple years but have thought about him often. To all of them that are still with us I'm sorry to hear he has passed but hope he in a peaceful place and with his family.
