“ *I have only the sweetest memories of this fine young man. We first met Anthony, TJ, Cousin Marge and Tim when we flew to Atlanta from the Uk in 1999. I was so excited to meet my Cousin's children and immediately fell in love with them both!
Our next meet- up was to be 10 years later, when we again had a family meet up at Marge's. By then both boys had grown into handsome teenagers.
Although we have not met up since, we kept in touch by Facebook Messenger.
In the final messages I have, TJ apologised for being late with my birthday greetings as he had been "piddling with the truck with Tom all day!"
The very last message wished me well after my operation, assuring me that I would soon be fine and that he loved me and missed me.
I will always love and miss him more and feel honoured to have had him as a member of our family.
God bless you TJ. ❤️ ☐* ”
