“ We are so sorry to hear of Tim’s passing. He was such a friendly person. He introduced me to old fashion omelets. They were great. Prayers for all his family. He will be missed by us and our grand daughter.

“ I don’t even know where to begin. I feel like you’ve been part of our life forever so I don’t really even know the first time we met... okay that’s a lie. We totally met a WH and you showed me your WH tattoo. Best day ever. I told H yesterday, I don’t have many pictures because you were always the man behind our camera, our crazy ideas, our impulsive shenanigans, and always down for a good time. You were also there through the hard times. The deployments, the chemo, family stuff, babies, breakups... it didn’t matter if I was at my best or at my worst, you loved me all the same. Additionally, you loved all of us as much as you loved Heather and for that I am forever and eternally grateful. I know that I have never met anyone who has a temperament the way you do, unconditionally loves the way you do, or would give you his last $5 if you needed it. You will be sorely missed. I promise to be a better friend and try to fill some of the void as much as I can with Heather and the girls. Save us a seat at your table in heaven please. I’d like a chocolate chip waffle with my all star plate when I get there 💜☐☐
