“ I knew Tom back in high school. He was such a gentleman and very kind. Of course we lost touch over the years but found each other again on face book. He had such great poems that I would comment on. Then we chatted on FB. It was great to reconnect. Please know that I am so sadden about the loss of Tom and please know that I am praying for all of you. Hopefully, the pain will ease for family because I know for sure that the pain has eased for him....He is with the LORD.

“ I went to North Hall Middle school with Tom's son ,David Calvert. We were great friends. Also David, was a huge crush of mine. We lost contact through out the years...then we found each other on Facebook. We exchanged numbers and we were planing on meeting up. One day, I texted David and got no response... Well, months later on Facebook, I found out David, had passed away. Shocked and surprised. Tom had commented on one of my comments and sent me a friend request. He was curious how I knew his son. Well from that point me and Tom became very close friends.

He was always there for me when, I needed him or something dramatic had happened to me. Tom, would tell me how much he hurt. We shared many times together...we would talk about David and listen to David's favorite songs. Even sing along with them. Like Daves Matthew Band, John Mayer and Mules Gov. Tom loved his family, very much. He had made some of his amazing meat loaf, one day and I remember calling him for the recipe! He would talk about their, "Falcons'get togethers" at Randy's and how the family would pig out! We would have egg rolls and wonton soup...comfort food you'd say. He never had anything bad to say about anyone. He spoke of his mother and how he missed her. He loved his daughter, Shannon so much...it made me care for her.

Then one day came beautiful, Braelyn! Who he adored, every moment he got. He'd invite my son to play with her several times, to bad he never got to. The best of the best photography, of her all over his house. He would always tell me to cherish every moment with my son, Hayden. He'd always asked me, how he was doing. Which meant so much to me. Now, I believe Tom, did have a "broken heart". But, I believe after holding on for so long his grip begin to go numb. He held on until his heart couldn't take it any more. Finally "God", heard his calling and pain. Tom, your forever in my memories and heart. You were like the farther I've never had. Rest peacefully, my dear.

“ I was reading the obits today and came across the death notice for Tom. I am deeply saddened at his passing. He and I spoke a couple of times and posted on each other's facebook accounts. We shared the sorrow of losing a son WAY too young.

My condolences to his family in this time of loss. My hope is that all of you will meet in the clearing at the end of the path.

Rest well my friend.....I know how you felt. Be at peace.

“ *To the Calvert Family,
I am so very sorry to hear about Tom's recent passing. I recall many memories of long ago years and all the fun we had just spending time together before any of our children were even born. Times change as do we. The memories will live on.*

“ *My condolences to the Calvert family.
I have known Tom, David, Tammy and Shannon since we first moved to Gainesville and my son Damon and David were in the third grade together.
For several years they lived across the lake from us so there are many shared memories of the boys growing up there and through high school.
Tom and I communicated often and I feel fortunate that I could share many of those stories with him from those times.
Tom and David are and will always be missed greatly.
May God bless and be with the Calvert family.*

“ My deepest heartfelt sympathy goes out to all friends and family of Tom. I feel blessed to have reconnected with him after so many years since high school. He truly had a gentle heart and loved deeply. I will miss so many things about Tom. I will miss our conversations, the way he would light up at the mention of Braelyn, his sense of humor and that boisterous laugh, the way he would chastise me for eating store bought salsa, jesting with me for being naive and congratulating me for the same, sharing his pain but also his love of cooking, music and poetry. I will cherish the poems he wrote for me. He will always stay with us through his written words. He is at peace now and we can all take comfort in knowing that. God bless.

“ I've known Tom since high school. I would call him a friend but if you knew Tom, then you were already his friend. We were the same age yet I still looked up to him. He was a terrific basketball player and kind to everyone he met.

I met Tom several years after high school when he was working with his Dad. I had a mid-level management position at the time and they came in to do a quote for the company I was working for. He immediately recognized me and told me he wished he could be like me, a successful businessman. That humbled me to no end and is something I have always remembered.

Like so many of us, we lost contact with each other over the last many years until we reconnected through Facebook. It was here that I discovered Tom's amazing writing which gave us all a glimpse into the pain he was living.

Tom was a loving man. He loved his friends, he loved his family, and maybe most of all, he loved that little grand-daughter. I've heard several people say that Tom died of a broken heart. Tom, there are countless broken hearts out here today. Your Earthbound pains are gone and you are free to relish in the pure positive energy that surrounds you. I am a better person to have known you. I am honored to be able to say I was your friend.
