“ Dear McCollum Family,

Our thoughts and memories go with you today as you celebrate the life of Tom. For myself, my memories go back to our childhood and the great delight he brought to our family times together. Although life has taken us in different directions, I will always cherish these memories.

To all of his family, Joyce and I send our deep love and sympathy. We are so thankful that he carries into eternity a faith in Jesus Christ. Therefore, as he is in the presence of Christ along with many of our loved ones who have gone before, we celebrate with you this day. We pray that you will know that our love and care are with you. God bless you all.

“ A very famous pastor Peter Marshall was asked to speak at his Mother memorial, it was the hardest thing he ever had to do. He asked God to help him & at the service this is what he said God spoke to him. You remember when you were a small child and you fell asleep in the car on the way home but the next morning you woke up in your room but u didn't know how you got there. Your parents picked u up with loving arms and took u to your bed. That is how death is Jesus picks u up with loving arms & takes u into the other room. When u wake up u will be in Heaven. Your dad is there now.
