“ *Tommy always enjoyed playing any instrument he was asked to play. The day these pictures were made he was the first one there and couldn't wait to get started.
I was so proud of my cousin I will miss you very much. Love

“ I remember the day Tommy and I became friends. We were six years old and playing on the playground. I remember the details very well of how we became friends because it was such an emotional moment and we've stayed friends ever since
