

Twounette McLeroy

February 14, 2016

Twounette (Toni) S. McLeroy (age 44) of Suwanee, GA was born January 10, 1972 in Biloxi, Ms to Brian F. McLeroy and Annette McLeroy. Toni grew up as an only child with several opportunities to travel the world as both of her parents were military.

She grew up in Salt Lake City, Utah where she accepted Christ in her life and united with World Wide Gospel Church. She finished high school in Salt Lake and received a music scholarship at the University of Utah. Shortly after, she started her adult career with Holiday Inn Worldwide at the Salt Lake Reservation Center (SLCRO). She moved to Charleston, SC and accepted a position at the Charleston Reservation Center (CHSRO) as a Reservation Supervisor. She was a professional from the heart with no tolerance for foolishness when there was a job to be done.

While in Charleston, she united with Mt. Moriah Missionary Baptist Church, Pastor Augustus D. Robinson, Jr.

She later moved to Atlanta, GA with the same company and continued her career in the hospitality industry. While in Atlanta, She joined New Vision Christian Church along with her mom and daughter, who were baptized there. Toni went to sleep on Saturday night February 13th in Suwanee, GA and woke up Sunday morning February 14th (a day of love) in Heaven, where the streets are paved with gold, in the arms of Jesus. Oh, what a good place to be! For to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Hallelujah! She was always a high energy person with a radiant smile, and a good team player with fairness and honesty. She will be greatly missed by family and friends.

Toni is survived by her daughter, Tami A. Grimes whom she loved dearly and her mother, Annette McLeroy, her father, Mr. Brian McLeroy. She leaves the following aunts: Sandra (William) Davis, Valerie (James) West, Mary Ann (Roland) Brown, Sharon Foster, Armita Jenkins, Angela Miller, Dee (Kevin) McKinney, Colleen (Rick) Bollinger, Claudette McKay. The following uncles: Gary Foster, Mark (Lynn) McLeroy, Bernard McLeroy, and Paul McLeroy. She leaves to cherish her memories a host of cousins, close friends and respected colleagues.

A memorial service will be held on Saturday, February 20, 2016 at 12:00 noon in the Chapel of Flanigan Funeral Home. “ Toni and Annette had the kind of daughter/mother bond that is the definition of that bond. Annette and Toni leaned on each other for love, strength, hope and so much more. When they were together, their faces were alight with joy for each other. But they also respected each other's personal space and choices. I am very sad to, just tonight, learn of Toni's death. She was smart, beautiful, ambitious and wanted a child, not only to become a mother but to be able to give her wonderful mother Annette, a grandchild. Their love was deep. I am so sorry, Annette.

“ Dear McLeroy Family,
Toni and I worked together at IHG over 10 years ago. I recently learned of her passing and was in disbelief, and still am. We got in touch again about 3-4 years ago when I learned she had a daughter. I believe our girls are exactly 1 year apart. I loved Toni and bonded with her at work. Such a sweet, honest soul. I feel for her daughter as I lost my mom at 3 years old. My thoughts and prayers are with you all. Toni is missed.

“ My heart goes out to the family of Toni at this time. When we loose sight of people in our lives this is what it ends up to be. I met Toni in 1991. My son Noldon introduced her to me. He had just graduated high school. I never dreamed that her and I would become such good friends because of our age diffrence. She was wiser beyond her years. My heart is heavy because my excuse for not knowing she was sick is life happen. I burried the one child who brought us together in 1995. We talk some but i let my grief get in the way of friendship. If there is anyone that you love and have not talk to in a lond time do so. Annete I feel your pain. Thank you for allowing her to be in my life. You were a remarkable mom. You are now blessed with another angel. I will always remember her. Continue blessings from my family to yours. REST IN PEACE MY DEAR FRIEND
