“ I worked with Vernon for a short time at Sears in Gwinnett. He was like a second father to me. Friendly, caring, always willing to share a story. I had the pleasure of having dinner with him and his family at their house. Fantastic family. His daughter was a joy to talk to and showed me around her part of the house. Vernon cooked a mean steak! I wish I had kept in touch. I miss him. My sincere condolences to the family.
