

Veronica O'Malley Blankenship

September 10, 2019

Veronica Grace O'Malley Blankenship of Lilburn, GA, joined her God in heaven on September 10, 2019 at the age of 88. "Ronnie" was born in New York on March 26, 1931 and was the last surviving of 8 children. She moved to Georgia as a teenager and met and married the love her life, Gene Bryson Blankenship, who preceded her in death. Ronnie managed the offices of various businesses throughout her career, proving invaluable to each. She was a member of St. Patrick Catholic Church in Norcross and a valuable member of St. Vincent de Paul Society in the parish. Ronnie never met a stranger, loved everyone and cared deeply and actively for those in need. Her family and friends were very dear to her and she was generous and open in her love for them. She is survived by her two children; daughter, Mary Ann Cooper (Harry) of Athens, GA and son, Michael Blaine Blankenship (Christina Ranallo) of Roswell, GA. Four grandchildren, Patrick Pawlowski (Katherine), Nikki Pope (David), Stephen Cooper, Eric Cooper and two great-grand daughters, Haley Pope and Charlotte Pope, all of Athens, GA. Also by her beloved niece and housemate, Elizabeth "Liz" Rotchford, many nephews and extended nieces and nephews and numerous loving friends. Graveside services will be Saturday, September 14, 2019 at 3:30 p.m. at Honey Creek Woodlands, 2625 Highway 212 SW, Conyers, GA.

Tribute Wall

“ Veronica O'Malley Blankenship

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM