“ Suzanne and I shared a nice evening and breakfast with Wayne and Vicky one week before the accident. It's still hard to absorb what has happened. Our sincere condolences go out to Wayne and the entire family even though we never got a chance to meet any of you.

Please know our thoughts have been with you all throughout the last month.

“ Vicky was golden, she IS golden, and will always be.
She could not have had a more fitting person to experience life with. Wayne, you two were blessings to each other, and a beautiful COMPLIMENT to one another.
Lisa and I pray for the strength you will need to carry on.
