

Vincent M Alfi

September 14, 2012

The world is a bit darker place for the loss of Vincent M Alfi, who has been a beacon of love and life for so many in his too short time here. He will be missed more than we can ever express. Vince Alfi, 66, originally from Brooklyn NY, most recently of Braselton, GA died suddenly on September 14, 2012. A Celebration of Life Ceremony will be held at a future date. Vince is survived by his loving wife of 45 years, Fran Saso Alfi and their three children Vincent Alfi, Paula Alfi-Smith and Kurt Alfi. He also leaves behind eight grandchildren, Nick, Dylan and Jack Alfi; Aidan and Torin Smith; Asa and Evan and soon granddaughter, Lena Alfi. He is also survived by brother, Sal Alfi and sisters Sadie Tellini, Josephine Tavormina and Irene Maiorana. He was preceded in death by his parents Vincent Alfi and Angelina Frasca Alfi. In lieu of flowers, family requests donations be made in his name to either Wounded Warrior or The American Heart Association.
