“ Judy, I was astonished to see your mother's death notice in the AJC. You may or may not remember me. I believe the last time we saw each other was in 1968. I was Marie Wiggly and both our families lived in Detroit for a time. You and I also spent time together the summer of 1959, when your Dad owned the cab company. I was visiting my Aunt Lois that summer and I believe I spent a week with you. It has been one of my cherished childhood memories. Hope you're well. Janet Riley.

“ I had the wonderful pleasure of spending time with this precious woman twice a week I volunteer at the nursing home she was at. I done bingo with them and she really loved playing and she was very lucky and I will forever hear her voice and the most beautiful smile. Judy you went beyond taking care of her and it was beautiful seeing how close and loving you two were. All I can say is I was truly blessed to know and spend time with this beautiful and loving lady and I am going to miss her so much, it just won't be the same without her. Judy and Lamar I will miss you two also. I loved her and you two so much and there will always be a place in my heart for you. Now her and mom are together again and I know they will always be watching over us and loving every minute.

“ Judy & LaMar,
I'm so sorry Randy and I can't be there to show how much we thought of your mom.
I used to talk to her at the dinners about our anniversary being the same day as her birthday.
Your mom is with your dad now, and I believe we will all be together someday.
Love,
