“ Grandmommy, Granny,

I can't choose just one so I will write as many that come to mind:

-Week-long vacations with you and Granddaddy in St. Augustine - just the 3 of us.

-Pizza from Spanky's and Vienetta for dessert.

-Long days on the beach with you in your Corona visor and Falcons towel, Granddaddy digging us out of the sand because we got stuck.

-Picking oranges at Mr. Bob's house.

-You sitting on the porch with Aly, just the two of you at St. George.

-Walking you down to the beach for the last time.

-Holiday dinners seated around the table in the dining room in St. Augustine with the whole family.

-Everyone sprawled out in your living room opening presents.

-Doing puzzles late into the evening out on the lanai, eating Goldfish while you sipped your gin.

-Hours-long trips to the outlet mall, you loved to shop as much as I did.

-You meeting Aly for the first time at Christmas.

-Sharing your memories through countless photo albums.

-Talking to you on the phone once every couple of weeks for many years.

-Annual vacations with our family, you were always there.

-Eating your famous spaghetti.

-Countless meals, glasses of wine, cakes and parties.

-Your caring soul who always took care of me with selfless love.

-Loving my husband as much as anyone else in our family.

We love you, Granny
