“ I met Wanda fourteen years ago and became friends immediately. She was quiet, always talked with a low voice. She was liked by everyone. We left the job the same day, as I retired and she had her plans on moving to Georgia. We stayed in contact, through all the events happening in her life, even while going through her illness. I will truly miss my friend. Condolences to her husband Belton, daughter Endia, son Joshewa, granddaughter Khalaya and the rest of her family. Rest well my friend!

“ I met Wanda and her husband through a mutual friend from Gary. We became fast friends/family. Her husband and my husband became inseparable, we spent our anniversaries together, vacation together and became family. We realized we grew up in the same church “Zion Progressive” and that solidified our bond!! You are going to be missed but know you’ve done an amazing job raising your kids and the love with you and B is one of a kind. Love you Wanda and I’m going to miss everything about you. Rest well my friend

“ Wanda was one of my Primary students, along with my two daughters, in my Sunday School Class at Zion Progressive. We had the little cards with Jesus on the front and the story on the back. She was very shy & quiet, but had a beautiful smile. I would bring cookies & milk and she would always say thank you. I never got a chance to see her while I was in St. Augustine before the Pandemic. My Condolences of Peace & Comfort to the Entire Family. In JESUS' Mighty Name! Cheryl Johnson 🙏❤️🥺
