poem was about a real-life experience of seeing a green bean TREE.

Poem:

"The Green Bean Tree"

Did you ever think you would see a real live green bean TREE.

With leaves that go to bed each night
and close their leaves good and tight.

To wake in the morning and open their leaves
and feel the warm sun and cool gentle breeze.

The beans on the tree have peas in their pod
and we know this is a plan made by God,
for bean trees to grow and be six feet tall
so the green bean tree can be seen by all.

“ Gwen, I don't know if you remember me, but Wauno and I started to Anne E. West kindergarten together. We were friends through Ormewood Park Church for many years after that. I haven't seen her since the early 90's when she joined our group to visit Pat Bean Montague in a nursing home. She was a beautiful and sweet lady and I was sorry to hear of her passing. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.
