“ I just read about Wayne's passing on the J.F.K. alumni page. Wayne and I grew up together on the streets of Taylor, MI. We were extremely close friends in childhood and into adulthood (teenagers). Wayne and I were classic characters together and had a ball. And then at one point; everybody vanished and went separate ways never to be seen again. I joined the Marines after high school and unaware what Wayne ventured into with his life among the 100's of other grads. I thought of him often through the years and only to imagine what our last words were together (when we were extremely young). I'm sure we were laughing our asses off....My sincere condolences to the immediate Davis Family, friends and neighbors. Just an added note; I lived at 7330 Harding St. next door to the apartments, down from the old McDonald's and 7-11. and I think I remember Wayne lived near Blair Moody Elem school. Rest in Peace Wayne. You will be missed. Maurice LaFontaine, retired from Michigan and residing in TN.

“ Uncle Wayne, you will be dearly missed. There are so many great memories that I could share but I would be here all day. From the time we came down for the family reunion and I got sick at Paw paws house (if you know, you know lol) to the times we went to concerts together, or just hanging out in the garage shooting darts together, those will be memories I will forever cherish. Until we meet again Uncle Wayne!! I love you!

“ What can I say about Wayne. He was a great uncle to his nephews. Our boys looked up to him when they were growing up uncle Wayne could do no wrong. There are some stories that the boys could share. That would have you cracking up anyway he would give you the coat off of his back if you needed it, he would give you money if you needed it he was a great joke teller. He would have you laughing. We lost a great human being. Love you Eugene& Linda
