“ We were so sorry to hear about the passing of Bro. Wayne. He was such a special man, and an inspiration to all who knew him. When I was hospitalized several years ago for about 5 weeks, he and his wife visited almost daily. I always looked forward to his responses to the daily verses I sent out by text. The last response received from him was December 3. He will be missed.

“ We are so sorry about the passing of Brother Wayne. He was an inspiration to all of us at West Buford. Brother Wayne had such a quiet spirit about him, but at the same time, he had an unfailing dedication and love to the Lord. We send love and prayers to all the family.
