“ I worked closely with Bill at Scientific Atlanta and always respected his dedication to his work and to his country. He inspired innovation that helped the team tremendously and did so with grace and good humor. Bill always made himself available in a personal way and we had fun working together. A good man truly missed.

“ I have known Bill since I was a teenager. He and Lanann were dating and I had the biggest crush on him. And Lanann was just fine with that. He was funny and kind and didn't make me feel awkward. And he LOVED Lanann... I do too, so how could I not have a crush on him. There are people who make a permanent mark on your life. Bill did that. He stamped your heart. I know there are so many people who can say this. My love and prayers are forever with his family. Robin Eve
