

William H. Carter

December 9, 2019

CARTER, William H., age 78, died on December 9, 2019 in Gainesville, Georgia. Bill was born in Weehawken, New Jersey and spent the major portion of his adult life in Georgia. He lived in Hoschton, Georgia at the time of his death.

Beginning his career as an accountant in Florida, his interests evolved to the systems and programming areas of business. He was eventually hired as a computer scientist by the Burroughs Corporation where he distinguished himself as a software expert. Burroughs moved him to several Florida locations before asking him to transfer to the corporate offices in Detroit, Michigan to develop an order entry system. He was associated with several IT related companies in Georgia before ending his career at Southeastern Data Cooperative in 2003.

Outside of work, Bill became a dedicated touring bicycle rider who completed week-long bicycle tours in ten states as well as numerous shorter rides around the country. He also enjoyed many hours tinkering and creating unique electronic circuits for the home.

Surviving are his wife, Barbara; son and daughter-in-law, William and Jennifer Carter of Denver, Colorado; brother, Norman Carter of Deming, New Mexico; and niece, Dorothy Luongo of Cooper City, Florida.

There will be a service on January 10, 2020 at 1:00 p.m. at the Georgia National Cemetery in Canton. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to a charity of your choice.

Tribute Wall

“ William H. Carter

November 08, 2022 at 07:37 PM