

William Rufus Clayton

January 21, 2015

William Rufus Clayton (Bill) died January 21, 2015 at Lanier Village Estates, Gainesville, Georgia, following an extended illness. He was born in Spartanburg, SC, in 1940, the son of Ruth White Clayton and J.M.H. Clayton and grew up in Belton, SC.

Bill graduated from Clemson University with a Bachelor of Science and Master of Science degree in Agricultural Economics. He was a member of the Tiger Marching Band, and as a devoted fan, he enjoyed watching Tiger football from his reserved seats for 50 years.

After college he spent two years with the Peace Corps, teaching in Nepal. He was an avid tennis player from an early age and also enjoyed hiking in the NC mountains.

Bill was greatly respected and admired by his colleagues and customers throughout his 34 years of employment with the Farm Credit System. He was fondly known as a quintessential Southern gentlemen and a man who loved his Lord. He served in various capacities at the several churches he attended over his lifetime.

He is survived by his wife of 26 years, Ann Tomlinson Clayton; daughter, Robin K. Clayton; stepson, Kevin C. Lear; stepdaughter, Stephanie L.

Henderson (Ian); and three stepgrandchildren, Ian, Clare and George Henderson.

A private inurnment and remembrance will be held at Big Canoe Cemetery for family members.

Gifts may be made in memory of Bill to the Lewy Body Dementia Association, 912 Killian Hill Rd. SW, Lilburn, Georgia 30047 or a Christian philanthropy of your choice.

“ Dear Ann and family,
It was my good fortune to work with/for Bill for over 30 years. Bill was the consummate professional and a never-tiring mentor. He had an inquisitive mind and robust sense of humor. He led by example, treating all with kindness and respect. I enjoyed our many business trips together, particularly those to visit the folks in the Florida sugar industry who we both loved so much. Bill profoundly impacted me over the years, and his guidance and example will be with me always. Terry and I send our love to the family.

“ It's hard to lose a loved one. May your family gain strength and comfort from the words at Revelation 21:4. "... he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away"

“ My family is saddened to learn of Bill's passing. My mother is Anne Clayton Stephens and my grandfather, Jolly Carter Clayton was Bill's uncle.

I never met Bill but my mother spoke fondly of him. Bill shared Clayton family photos and history that will always be treasured by my family.
