“ I want to wish my deepest sympathy too all of the family for the loss of Uncle Bill. He and Aunt Doris were such a major part of my childhood and growing up. Just about every story I share with the kids about Dad seems to include Uncle Bill. My love and heartfelt sorrow are with the entire family.

“ Uncle Bill, You were such a good man and you will be sorely missed. I remember the many times coming down to visit you and Aunt Doris with my parents & sisters and the fun we had at your place in the mountains. I especially remember spending a month there as a child and the one-on-one I had with you and all the things we did while I was there. You both took such good care of me. I have very speical memories that I still hold dear. I hope you are at peace and I know you are not suffering where you are. Love, Your niece Marie B. Eaves
