“ I am saddened at the news of Williams passing. He is a memory from my child hood. I remember he would stop my Grand Mothers house sometimes when I would be spending time there on Little Mill Road. He was always telling people about Jesus. He is an example of true Christianity. Buford has lost a precious man of God. Rest in Jesus William.

“ I am very saddened to learn of William's untimely passing. To his family and friends, I wish to extend my deepest condolences. As youths, William and I met years ago attending Old Suwanee Baptist Church. He grew into adulthood remaining faithfully dedicated to GOD and spreading the gospel. He was always attentive in showing his unwavering devotion and support to family and friends during their time of great sorrows. May he go rest high on that mountain for his work on earth is done. Job well done, William. RIP

“ Anytime there was revival, Homecomings, singings William would be finding his way to church. Any church. He loved the Savior. Gave his testimony at every service. Preached a little too. His smiling face will be so missed. But he is with the Lord and that's what he wanted most. He talked of heaven a lot. ❤️ Praying for the family.

“ William was a friend and fellow minister of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. We have been in quite a few services and Revivals together over the years. He was always inviting people to come to Christ and to church. He will be missed.

“ I met William when he was about 7. He was a lively full of life little kid. Im thrilled he made the church his family. I was so glad to get to see him again recently at a baptizing at Riverside Baptist Church. He knew how to shout & preach as fervently as any. We all that know him will be glad to see him alive & whole in glory.
