“ Dear Steve,

Although we only recently became friends through #9 as colleagues and teammates, your warm heart and gentle and level-headed approach to life was so precious and appreciated. I am blessed that I know you, only briefly, but your memory will live on until the day we meet in Heaven and play, once again.

*Your pal,
Jake*

“ My dearest brother Steve. It is impossible to believe you have left us because your presence was so profoundly felt. Know how deeply we miss you. Know how much you were loved. May you experience exquisite peace and the full magnitude of the love of our Lord and Savior in Paradise. You deserve Heaven and may God give back to you all the love and comfort and generosity you gave to others here on earth.

I sat with you a little while today. You seem to slumber free of pain and a state of youthful repose which will bring joy to so many of us who will always, always, remember you in your happiest days. I love you, and thank God for the time we shared together. It taught us both so much that contributes to soul perfection. We shall meet again in a better place. Kiss Mom and Dad for me.

“ Steve was truly one of the most sincere, kindest, most knowledgeable men I have ever met. I always looked so forward to seeing him every Wednesday afternoon at Church. If I were having a busy or not so good day, he always knew the exact words that would bring everything back into perspective for me. I am going to truly miss him. Wednesday afternoons will never be the same.
