“ It's been a year since Perry's passing. The days dont get easier, just longer since you've gone. Thank you for looking out for me near and far. Until we meet again dear friend, my soul will surely weep.

“ I remember once when Perrys mama and I worked at the same place I was dropping her off from work, just as i was pulling into her drive we saw Perry standing right in the middle of her car top. As she was getting out she yelled at perry that she was going to beat his butt, he just stuck his thumbs in his ears flapping his fingers and laughing. As she started at him he took off down the back of the car, I could'nt help laughing. I don't know if he got his butt beat or not.

“ Christie, Kimberly,
I was so sorry to hear of your daddy's sudden passing. My heart goes out to you both I know how bad it hurts to lose your daddy, only mine was a lot older than your dad and we were expecting it. I remember his excitement when you girls were born . He loved going camping with his little family and you girls would toddle around after him, with him teaching you how to do things like gather wood and paper, pulling bark off trees to use as kindling. Sorry Kimberly but you kept him really busy because you always wanted to do it your way, like throwing grill starter on the fire, putting everthing you found in the fire. taking off and going to the road or woods on your own. I remember him saying once "chasing after Kimberly is like working a full day at work. Christie on the other hand was very mild mannered, smart but easy going girly girl. May you both find peace in knowing he is with his mama and daddy now and your memories and love for your daddy.

*love you,
Aunt Wanda*
