“ We are saddened to learn of Bill's passing. We send our deepest sympathy to his wife, children, family and friends.

I worked for Bill in 1969 at Michigan Metal Specialties, Inc. in East Detroit, Michigan. Even though we only worked together for a short time, Bill and I became pheasant hunting buddies. He, his brother-in-law Chuck and I enjoyed exploring the "Thumb" of Michigan and hunting on my many friend's farms.

This past Monday, August 3, at dinner and "out-of-the blue", I commented to my wife and son that I need to look Bill up, as I had not seen him since the early seventies. He was an old friend that I lost contact with and I wanted to see how he was. Our internet inquiry on Tuesday, led us to his obituary here. I am sure that there is meaning to my thinking of Bill at that moment, right around his passing. We are saddened.

He was truly a wonderful friend back then and he left a lasting impression on me. Sometimes we laughed so hard at jokes, we actually gasped for air. No matter how serious the situation was, Bill could find the brightness and humor in it.

We will all miss him. Rest in Peace Old Friend.
