“ It took a while for use to get to know each other after I got past your gruff exterior, quite frankly we had a ball. We both have had things going on in our lives over the last years and we did not see each other as much as I wish. Bill old friend you will me missed and always on my mind. There are not many of use left from the old Institution and now there is one less

“ My friend Bill for 20 years. Your mother was a member of FWC (Oakwood Gospel Tabernacle). God Bless your family during your passing. I well remember visiting you in your home and often in the hospital. Strong man, a sense of doing what is right. Served his county with honor. Will meet you again one day. Pastor Osteen
