“ I am a senior citizen and was having a difficult time finding a place I could afford to rent. I have medical issues issues, as did Bill. He offered to rent me a room and use of his home, and I accepted gratefully. I had met him years before and seen him occasionally through the years between. We became good friends and confidants while I was his tenant, and I made certain he was aware of how much I appreciated him, and sharing his home. We are sat up many nights talking about our memories, and experiences. There was only 10 years age difference and we remembered many of the same events over the span of our lifetimes. I felt good about our friendship, and will miss those talks and Bill, who never failed to let me know that he wanted me here and enjoyed having someone to talk to.

“ Bill aka William Henry shelton was my dad I never had. My father passed on my 8th b-day I am now 38 years old and the past 30 years Bill was a father to me and my children called him papaw. I remember going to big lots w Bill about 4 years ago and the woman asked if he was my father and I said no he is my step father we got back home and Bill was very serious when he told me to come have a seat in the living room he needed to talk to me and he told me I was his daughter and he wanted me to only say he was my dad bc I hurt his feelings when I told that lady he was my step father he said he loved me if I loved him I would let him be a dad to me. So since that day I've known how Bill loved me and he was always there for me so Bill I miss u more than words can say and I hope u know I love u dad!
