“ I am so sorry for your loss. Bill was a wonderful neighbor who always waved and said hello. He never let the opportunity to share a smile with someone pass him by. His cheerful nature will be missed. I pray memories of his smile will warm your hearts. Condolences to all Bill's loved ones. Sheila Manley

“ In my previous note, I only mentioned 3 of Bill's children. I inadvertently left out Andy, of whom Bill was very proud. Bill was a great father to all his kids!

Thank you. Haven't been able to bring myself to comment on anything until now, but I was reminiscing with my wife tonight about the Midget Steve restored for dad. It's gone now, but I'll love that car until my last. Also still fondly remember throwing stones for Nicky (sorry, not sure if that's the correct spelling) at the bonfires you guys used to host. I know it's been years since we've talked, but you are a constant and fond memory. I'd still take that Saab 93 off your hands. Just saying :)
