“ Wyatt Saint Barbe Eustis. You were such an amazing person, it's still hard to believe you're gone. You were always so happy, I can only imagine how happy you are now wrapped in God's arms now. We had some great times when we were younger and I'll hold onto our memories forever. You have so many people who love and care about you and are heartbroken over your loss. I didn't know how to react when I heard the news, I'll tell you now though, it hurt my heart. I've dealt with it the only way that I know how to, I don't talk about the fact that you're gone, I remember the fact that you were here. I want to remember you, Brandie and I having the time of our lives, without a care in the world. I want to remember all the baseball games we went to! A big thanks to God for sharing you with us for as long as he did, guess it was just time for his favorite Angel to come home. I just want to let go of your death and hold on to the fact that you were here. "I will see you again, this is not where it ends. I will carry you with me, until I see you again." Rest In Paradise Wyatt. I love and miss you, see you soon!

“ So sorry to hear about your son Wyatt. My heart is broken for you all; but know that if you stay close to GOD he WILL bring you all through this. We don't understand and maybe never will but remember that GOD is faithful & will not leave you! I am praying GOD will give you all peace, strength and take all the pain away from you all. Hugs to you my sweet friend and sister!

WE LOVE YOU!!!

“ Jan

I know that we have not seen each other in years, but I was saddened to hear about the death of Wyatt. When we were in contact, all your children were very young. The loss of a child is always tough. My thoughts and prayers are with you.

“ Jan and family,

I am so sorry to hear about the passing of Wyatt. So tragic because he was so young. I know the last time we spoke we talked about Wyatt and Alicia sharing the same birthday. I can't even imagine what you must be going through right now. We always hope to outlive our children. Sometimes God has other plans. Please know that I am thinking about you and your family and will pray for all of you during this difficult time.

“ Wyatt and Jan,
I am so sorry to hear of this terrible accident and the loss of your son. I didn't know him but if he's anything like his father, he's someone to be proud of. I pray that he knew the Lord and is today singing his praises.

*In deepest sympathy,
Frank*
