

Wynelle H. Seiler

April 13, 2018

Wynelle Hudson Seiler, 80, of Hoschton, GA, formerly of Williamsburg, VA and Baltimore, MD, died April 12, 2018 peacefully at her home after a short battle with cancer. Wynelle was the daughter of Russell J. Hudson and Wynelle Hudson of Arlington, VA. A graduate of Baltimore Friends School, she attended Syracuse University with her husband, Robert Seiler, before starting a family. She completed her BA degree 25 years later in Interior Design at The Maryland Art Institute. She went on to have a successful interior design business, Wynning Designs. It was not unusual for her to rearrange the furniture when she went to visit her children and friends, always for the better. She had a deep abiding faith in Jesus and love for her family. She sung with her church choir no matter where she lived. Although she denied it, she was a fierce competitor whether the game was Pinocle, Scrabble, Bridge, Wheel of Fortune or anything else her family and friends routinely lost to her at. She is survived by daughters Lauri Shipley, Suzanne Patterson, Nell Seiler Carroll, and son, Phillip. She is predeceased by her husband Robert Wilson Seiler and is also survived by six adoring and adored grandchildren, Jessica Shipley, Rob Patterson, Brendan Patterson, Alexandra Seiler, Colin Seiler and Jackson Carroll, and one great grandchild, Claire Patterson. A memorial service will be scheduled at a later date at Hamilton Mill United Methodist Church, 1450 Pine Road, Dacula, GA, 30019. In lieu of flowers, donations may be made to the music ministry at Hamilton Mill United Methodist Church in her name.

“ One of our first joys in moving to Williamsburg was meeting Wynelle when she walked her Golden Sarah. Wynelle was the perfect neighbor--so warm, friendly and gracious. We were blessed to see her sing in the beautiful Christmas concert at Williamsburg Community. She is now surrounded by His heavenly everlasting love; may His love comfort and surround her family and friends.

“ Our thoughts and prayers are with all who loved Wyn. We got to know her and Rob during our Amway days. They even took us to Ada, Michigan in their motorhome. She always welcomed us into their home like family. May the memories that you hold dear in your hearts be a comfort to you at this time.

“ I'm praying for comfort for all of y'all, knowing that now both of your parents are gone. But I know it brings you peace and joy to know they are both together up in Heaven, and rejoicing with Jesus! Mom and I hope to get to the memorial service (although our vacation is scheduled at the end of May already), but know you are all in our thoughts and prayers!

“ She was my cousin, but like a sister just 10 months older. I am sad and I miss her, but know we will be together again in Heaven. That's the comfort and assurance of followers of Christ. Sending love to Lauri, Suzanne, Nell and Phillip, spouses, all those precious grandchildren, and little great grand baby Claire, who I'm so glad she got to know.
